English Micro-film Competition Guidelines

1. Purpose:

This competition is to encourage students to shoot English micro-films and express the language and multicultural meanings in English. This could help guide students to appreciate the differences in English usages, cultivate respect for different cultures, and create an atmosphere of English learning. Furthermore, the competition also helps enhance students' learning motivation, develop their creativity and cultivate their self-confidence in demonstrating different English learning achievements.

2. Advised by Ministry of Education

Organized by Center for English Language Teaching, Wenzao Ursuline University of Languages

3. Participants:

1. Participants must be college or university students (including foreign students).
Each institution can promote at most two groups, but this restriction does not apply to the organizer. With 2 to 4 people per team. Inter-departmental groupings are acceptable.
2. Each team must have one consulting instructor.
3. Participating entries must be entirely original and not plagiarized.
4. The total number of entries is limited to 30 groups, with registration on a first come, first served basis. If an officially-enrolled team loses the right to participate, the first group from a waitlist (group number 31) will fill their vacancy, and so on.
